

Let me tell you right now:
It takes you!

Being a "star" isn't just about hitting home runs or catching line drives. It's about making the right choices. In this book, I'm going to show you all how to find the star that's already inside you, just waiting to shine. I'm going to help you to become your own "All-Stars" by teaching you my "10 Life Lessons," and then helping you to create your own life lessons. Good luck.
